Hello Matt,

Thank you for your interest in the review process. I don't think we need to have a call – we are reviewing the latest submission and, at the moment, we don't anticipate having more questions before issuing the decision. We will let you know if we have more questions.

Thank you,
Melinda

Thank you very much Melinda.

I really appreciate your email. We are building our plans for next year which includes approval for monies to drill and complete our RH AGI #2 for which we have an approved APD. To that point, we are hoping all is going positively in the review process. Would you be open to a brief phone call to discuss?

And, most importantly, Happy Thanksgiving to you as well.

All the best,
Matt

Hi Matt,

Thanks for checking in. The MRV plan submission is still in internal review and we do not have additional questions at this time. We will let you know when we have an update.

Have a happy Thanksgiving,

Melinda

Good afternoon Melinda and Mark,

I hope this finds you both doing well.

Our last email confirmed your comfort in receiving all necessary information from Lucid for review. As our last version was posted September 14th, I thought it would be good to touch base to see if you could share anything further about the status of the review from your view.

Thanks for all you are doing – am certain you all have a large workload.

All the best,
Matt
